Mrs. Tweedie,
Devonshire House,
Piccadilly,
W. 1.

Dear Mrs. Tweedie,

I am sorry I was unable to ring you up,
as I have been out of town.

I attended to the question of our being able to broadcast television and it seems that it will be reception, so that we will, I am afraid, have to abandon the idea.

The trouble is, the difficulty of getting the telephone lines between our Studio and the B. B. C. installed in time, and other technical matters of this sort, so that I am afraid nothing can be done.

Yours sincerely,

John L. Baird
